Sources for Husband:

Sir Thomas White, born 1492 died 1567; wealthy citizen of London, became Lord Mayor of London in 1553, founder of St. John's College, Oxford. He was one of the Judges who sat on trial of Lady Jane Grey, born at Broadgate Leicheste-rshire Oct. 1537 eldest daughter of Henry Grey, Marquis of Dorset, afterwards Duke of Suffolk, and of Lady Frances Brandon. The latter was the daughter of Charles Brandon, Duke of Suffolk by Mary, youngest sister of Henry VIII and widow of Louis XII of France. In 1553 the Duke of Northum-berland forseeing the speedy death of Edward VI, determined to secure the sucession of the crown to his own family; Lady Jane was therefore married against her will to Lord Guilford Dudley. On the death of Edward VI she was proc-laimed Queen but reigned for only ten days, Queen Mary ousting her and maintaining the Tudor sucession. Lady Jane and her husband was imprisoned in the Tower of London and tried for high treason and found guilty. Six months later they were beheaded.

THE FRAZIERS

I, Jeanne (Sutton) Hagood, in this year of 1980, will write this documentary about the Frazier family. This will cover a time span of over seven generations. These true and authentic facts of written information have been recorded by my maternal grandmother, Laura Bell Frazier, during her lifetime. Grandmother Frazier left several handwritten books that I am able to consult for historical facts about our ancestors. Also, both my grandmother, Laura, and my mother, Ibbie (Frazier) Sutton, have told me many things they remember about their childhood and adult lives.

Laura Bell Atkeson Frazier's maternal grandparents were Johnie and Susan Carpenter from Kentucky. Susan Carpenter's maiden name was Price. Laura's greatgrandmother Price went to California in 1849, during the gold rush. As a result, she and her family became rich.

Johnie and Susan Carpenter left Kentucky and moved to Moniteau County, Missouri, near Chenault's Small Woods. There they raised a family of five children. They had four sons named Jake, Dee, Joe and Tom and a daughter named Rhoda. Rhoda married Milton Atkeson.

Milton, was the son of Thomas and Fannie Atkeson. Fannie Atkeson's maiden name was Young. She was born in Virginia. When Milton was three years old, Fannie and Thomas left Virginia and moved to Moniteau County, Missouri, to live. Fannie Atkeson lived to be 93 years of age. She died in 1905, and is buried in Moniteau County, Mo.

The Atkeson's came from English-Irish and Welch nationalities. They were fair skinned with either auburn or brown hair and blue or hazel eyes.

Ten children were born to Milton and Rhoda. There were six sons named Carless, Charlie, Mitt, Harry, Lee and Alfred. There were four daughters named Dora, Susie, Olevia and Laura Bell. My grandmother, Laura Bell was born October 10, 1861. She was born in Moniteau County, Missouri, near Tipton. As in the words of Laura Bell (Atkeson) Frazier in her writings, she recollects:

> My parents were well-to-do farmers. My Pa's farm joined old man Langley's farm one-and-a-half miles from Montrose, Missouri. The M. K. and T. railroad run cat-acornered through our field.

In later writings by Laura Bell she explains further childhood memories:

> I remember my grandparents Johnie and Susan Carpenter and the good times I had with them. I remember my Uncles Jake, Dee, Joe and Tom Carpenter.
> I remember negroes named Jim and Adeline who lived in a little house on Grandpa Carpenter's farm after they were freed from slavery. Ma said they thought lots of me when I was a little child. I have a few faint recollections about them.

Before continuing with further information about Laura Bell Atkeson's life I will insert information in here about her mother, father, brothers and sisters which have been recorded by Laura.

Her brother Carless Atkeson died at the age of 16 months and is buried in Henry County, Missouri, near Montrose. Charlie Atkeson lived to be 61 years old and is buried near Hastings, Oklahoma. Mitt Atkeson lived to be 52 before his death. He lies in a cemetery near Henrietta, Oklahoma, with his son, Reese, buried beside him. Harry Atkeson is buried beside his sister, Susie Ward. Susie lived to be 63 years of age. Harry and Susie are buried in the Ada, Oklahoma, cemetery. Brother Lee, died at the age of 15 and lies buried in a cemetery at Gordon, Texas. Brother Alfred, died at the age of 23 and lies in Avoca cemetery, which is a few miles from Asher, Oklahoma. Alfred is buried beside his sister, Dora Jones, who died at the age of 32. The only living child of Rhoda and Milton Atkeson is Olevia Keith who lives in Frederick, Oklahoma. Olevia will be 103 years old on her birthday which is November 17, 1877. In the latter years of Rhoda's life, she lived with her daughter, Olevia Keith, near Frederick. Rhoda died on June 18, 1924, at the age of 85. Milton left Rhoda to raise their children as best she could. Information about the latter years of Milton's life is unknown.

I will continue with the story about my grandmother, Laura Bell (Atkeson) Frazier. At the age of 15, Laura Bell moved to Collin County, Texas, near McKinney. She lived there for two years. After this, she spent one year in Palopinto County, near Gordon and another year near Horseshoe Bend, Cook County, Texas.

Laura Bell acquired a very good education for that day and time. She attended schools in both Missouri and Texas. Some of her teachers in Missouri were Mr. Black, Katharine Capehart and Miss Effie May. Her favorite teacher in Texas was Mr. Frank Mc Carty. Callie Collins (nee Kemper) was her best friend. Laura and Callie delighted in embarrassing Mr. McCarty by asking him questions he couldn't answer.

At the age of 17, Laura Bell obtained her teaching degree. She taught school for two years near Gainesville, Texas.

At the age of 19, on Febrauary 3, 1881, Laura Bell Atkeson married John Thomas Frazier, near Gainesville, Texas. He was born on February 15, 1855, in McDonald County, Missouri. He was 25 years old.

There are some available records of the Frazier family dating as far back as 1815. The parents of John Thomas Frazier moved from Tennessee to McDonald County, Missouri, soon after they married. His father, James Jal Frazier, was born April 13, 1815, and his mother, Isabelle, was born July 26, 1817. In McDonald County, Missouri, James and Isabelle raised a family of eleven children. James Jal was killed by Federals, sometimes known as "bushwhackers", during the Civil War. He and his young son were taking a wagon load of corn to the mill to be ground into flour when the killing occured. "Bushwhackers" were bands of outlaws who roamed the countryside during the war stealing, pillaging, raping and killing innocent people. Isabelle never remarried but struggled alone and raised her family. She died in McDonald County, Missouri, in 1879. Isabelle and James Jal are buried at Neal Mountain, Missouri.

James and Isabelle Frazier's oldest child, Mary Ann, married Franklin Ray and they had a daughter named Frances Isabelle. Frances grew up and married Billy Cleveland. After Franklin Ray died, Mary Ann married Louallen Gilliam Cleveland. Four sons named James, Joe, John and Charlie and a daughter named Nancy were born to them. Nancy married Albert Skinkard. Mary Ann Cleveland died December 5, 1922.

James and Isabelle Frazier's second child was Patsy Jane Frazier born on December 1, 1838. She married a man by the last name of Johnson. They had five children born to them. There were four sons named Dick, Denny, John, Frank and a daughter named Mary.

The third child of James and Isabelle was Robert T. Frazier, born June 19, 1839, and on March 12, 1841, their second son Richard arrived.

The fifth child to arrive at the home of James and Isabelle was Rebecca Ellen. She married Scott Clanton. They had three sons named Mat, Jimmie and Ellis and a daughter named Mary. Mary's married name was Fox.

The sixth child was a boy named James. James and his wife had eight children. The names of their sons were Fate, Robert, Willie and Ellis. Their daughters were Vada, Susan, Laura and Ethel. Susan and Laura married brothers named Fox and Ethel's married name was Todd.

Katherine Frazier born October 15, 1848, was James and Isabelle's seventh child.

Louisa Frazier, born January 10, 1851, was their eight child. She married Ned Stephens, Their children were Paradine, Clementine, Josie, Alec and twin girls named Sarah and Belle. Louisa died November 29, 1904, and is buried at Tahlequah, Oklahoma.

Sally Dowel Frazier, born March 29, 1853, was James and Isabelle's ninth child. Her married name was Mahurin. Sally is buried near her parents in Neal Mountain, Mo.

Athis Isabelle Frazier was the eleventh child. She was born on January 27, 1858. She married Billy Davis and they had one child named Molly Belle. Molly Belle lived in Duncan, Oklahoma and is buried there.

My grandfather, John Thomas Frazier was James and Isabelle's tenth child.

Very little is known about the ancestory or nationality of John Thomas. Since most of our family are olive complexioned, have dark brown eyes and either brown or black hair, it is assumed we have some Indian blood in us. On Grandfather Frazier's side, so the story goes, some of his forefathers came over from France, with LaSalle, to help with the exploration of the Mississippi River and its tributaries. It is said they took Indian women as their wives. Another story that has been handed down, is that our dark coloring is derived from our "Black Dutch" ancestors who colonized a part of Pennsylvania and later migrated westward. We are certain there is some Scottish blood in our veins from the Frazier side. Regardless of little known facts, it is safe to say that we are like "Heinz 57 Varieties", a mixture of many nationalities combined together to make Americans.

The first year of their married life, Laura Bell and John Thomas Frazier lived at Burlington or (Spanish Fort), Montague County, Texas. After this, they moved to Courtney Flat, Chickasaw Nation, Indian Territory (now Oklahoma), for four years from 1882 through 1886. During the years 1886 through 1891, they moved back to Texas and lived 7 miles north of St. Joe, in Montague County. In November, 1891, they came to Oklahoma Territory and homesteaded 160 acres of land 1 1/2 miles west of Tribbey, in Pottawatomie County.

Four boys and seven girls were born to Laura Bell and John Thomas Frazier. Gracie Lee Frazier was born in Texas at Burlington, on October 27, 1881. At the age of 13 months, she departed this life and is buried in a cemetery near Spanish Fort, Texas.

James Thomas Frazier was born on December 6, 1883, in Courtney Flat, Chickasaw Nation (Oklahoma).

The following children were born in Montague County, Texas. An infant daughter (unnamed) was born on March 24, 1886. This child died at the age of eleven days old on April 5, 1886, and is buried near St. Joe, Texas. Leatha May Frazier was born on May 14, 1887. Robbert Claudius (he later changed his name to Claude Robert), was born on February 1, 1890.

In 1890, when Claude was a month old, Laura Bell became desperately ill with infantile paralysis. She lost the ability to walk or speak and was not expected to live. Miraculously, she recovered and taught herself to speak and walk again. After her recovery, she was never again a very strong woman.

Due to her illness, Laura Bell was unable to make the move to Tribbey by covered wagon. She and the children, Jim, Leatha and Claude caught the train at St. Joe, Texas and rode to Purcell, Oklahoma. John Thomas met them there as he had came on ahead by himself with their household goods, horses and cattle.

In November of 1891, after arriving in Tribbey, Oklahoma Territory and filing their claim as homesteaders of 160 acres of fertile farm land, the Frazier family went about the hard task of building a house to live in. At first, a one room log cabin was built by John Thomas for them to live in while the permanent home was being constructed. Later, this cabin was converted into a smokehouse.

The following spring and summer, the Frazier family was able to move into the completed home. At first, it was a four room frame house consisting of a living room, kitchen and two bedrooms with a front and a back porch. Later, as the family increased in size, a third bedroom was added. A pole barn was erected to shelter the cattle and horses.

John Thomas worked from sunrise to sundown cutting trees, pulling stumps and clearing the land to make fields where a garden and crops could be planted. Many of the neighbor men would help each other do the countless tasks required to make the wilderness into a place where a family could feed itself and grow prosperous.

The Frazier children that were old enough to attend school walked several miles to "Old Friendship" which was a one room schoolhouse. A few years later, in 1908, the one room schoolhouse was moved to Tribbey and as the population increased a room was added until it grew to be a five-room school. In 1920, the five-room wooden building was torn down and a fine brick high school was built.

Laura Bell and John Thomas continued their family after settling in Tribbey. Marrietta was born on March 4, 1892. She lived only 4 days and died on March 9, 1892. The area was too newly settled to have an established cemetery so Marrietta was buried west of the house where they lived. Maggie was born on March 10, 1893. She too only lived a few days and is buried in the Tribbey cemetery. Isabel Maxwell (my mother) was born on July 6, 1895. John Henry was born on January 21, 1898. Mary Ellen was born June 28, 1900 and Herman William was born on August 22, 1905.

Pioneer life for the Frazier's was a very hard and rugged life but a very happy and rewarding way to live. The fertile soil was perfect for the growing of cotton. In the early spring the cotton seed was planted. All through the late spring and summer the weeds had to be kept out and the plants cultivated. In the fall of the year in October and November the cotton matured and had to be picked and harvested to be taken to gins so the cotton could be separated from the boll and later woven into cloth. During these months there was very little time for fun or pleasure. This was when the Frazier children came in handy to do the field work so having a large family was a blessing.

After the work was finished much fun was had by the Frazier family in the small community of Tribbey. In winter there were the spelling bees at the school and ice skating and sledding on the frozen ponds and snowy roads. The whole family was musically inclined and had good singing voices. They even had their own family band. John and Claude both played the fiddle. John also played the accordion and banjo. Leatha and Ibbie played the guitar. Mary played the piano and the rest of the group helped out with the "french or juice harp", or just sang along to the accompaniment of the musical instruments. They played and furnished the music for the square dances given in the area. Relatives and friends would travel by wagon to visit the family and stay a week at a time.

In the summer, the Frazier children enjoyed swimming in the ponds, riding horseback and making playhouses in Persimmon thickets where "corncob" dolls were loved. There was the weekly trip to Tribbey for groceries and supplies to look forward to and the thrill of buying candy at the mercantile store. Best of all, there was the annual Fourth of July picnic to attend. Occasionally a minstrel show or the circus would come to Tribbey for people to see. Another rare treat was to ride the train to Shawnee, to spend the night and do some special shopping.

There were times of hardship when the temperature reached nearly zero and the Frazier children nearly froze to death walking several miles to school. There were many times they remembered being exhausted from working the long, hard hours in the fields.

There were also times of warmth and pleasure when the Frazier family gathered around the warm crackling fireplace, rosy-cheeked, eating homegrown apples or popping corn.

There were times of terror such as when Ibbie and Mary one night pulled back the covers of their bed and crawled in with a snake who had decided to come through a crack in the wall to get warm. Or the remembrance of the time that "Pa" Frazier and the men in the neighborhood got together and used dynamite to blast out a den of rattlesnakes and copperheads that had decided to make their home in a rocky area of the Frazier farm. Ibbie remembers going to the barn to gather eggs and upon sticking her hand in the hen's nest, finding a chicken snake curled up helping itself to the eggs.

Laura Bell and John Thomas Frazier raised their family in the ways of God. Daily reading of the bible and family prayers, as well as attending church or having the religious services in their home, was a part of their upbringing. Many a Sunday, the preacher was invited home to share dinner with the family.

Tribbey's post office opened February 4, 1905, and the first postmaster was Thomas Anderson. Jim Frazier was one of the first mail carriers. He delivered the mail either by buggy or on horseback from 1908 to 1912. Jim attended Indianola College in Tecumseh, Oklahoma, during the years 1905-1906.

In 1905, the Santa Fe built a railroad through Pottawatomie County and the town of Tribbey began to grow. John Thomas Frazier saw that the town needed a good general merchandise store, so he opened one. Soon after this, he and son Jim added a livery stable to the merchandise store business. Jim helped his father run the livery stable. From 1905 until 1920, the two businesses thrived. Other business places in Tribbey included a hotel, drugstore, two hardware stores, barbershop, blacksmith shop, a dry goods store, doctor's office and two cotton gins.

In 1921, the boll weevil struck the surrounding area of Tribbey and ruined the good cotton crops. After this source of income was lost, Tribbey began to go on the decline.

John Thomas Frazier's health began to fail and on May 31, 1923, he passed away at the age of 68. He died from a heart attack.

In 1915, Jim Frazier decided it was time for him to leave home and make his fortune. He went to California where he worked for Standard Oil Company as a well driller. In 1922, he signed a contract to go to Columbia, South America to help Standard drill oil in that part of the world.

When Jim returned from South America, he had saved enough money to start his own business of drilling water wells. He set up an office in the Capitol Hill (Southwest) area of greater Oklahoma City. There he operated the business for nearly 50 years until he retired in the early 1970's and returned to Tribbey to live on the Frazier farm. He died on October 18, 1975, at the age of 92 years and is buried in the Tribbey cemetery.

The oldest daughter, Leatha May Frazier, helped Laura Bell with the housework. But, most of all, she was a second mother to her younger sisters and brothers. Leatha May married Albert Monroe Cleveland on June 19, 1906. Three daughters were born to them. Marie arrived on August 19, 1907. Dorothy was born on April 14, 1909, and Wynona on December 14, 1914. Just before Wynona arrived, Monroe moved his family to Montana. There he worked in the wheat harvest and as a miner and a trapper. At the age of 29, Leatha died on February 9, 1917. She is buried in Montana, near Boulder. Monroe Cleveland met his death on May 17, 1920, at Bremerton, Washington. His tragic death was the result of an on-the-job accident while building a battleship at the Naval yards.

This left Marie, Dorothy and Wynona Cleveland orphans. Monroe's sister, Alpha Bond, took the girls into her home to raise.

Marie was born with very poor vision. At the age of 12, Marie attended the state School for the Blind at Muskogee, Oklahoma. In 1924, Marie came to Tribbey to live with her grandmother, Laura Bell Frazier. She helped Laura Bell with the cooking and house cleaning. Soon after Laura Bell passed away, Marie fell in love with Steve Prokipchak, from Long Island, New York. They were married on February 7, 1951, and lived in New York City on Long Island until 1979. They now live in Tribbey on a part of the original homesteaded Frazier farm.

Dorothy Cleveland grew into a beautiful woman. Dorothy and Arthur "Bud" Gregson from Trousdale, Oklahoma, were married when she was 18. Later, on December 26, 1947, Dorothy married Milton "Tiny" Senzig. Dorothy and Tiny lived for 18 years in the Houston and Galveston, Texas area. After Tiny's death in 1965, Dorothy moved to Dallas, Texas to be near her sister, Wynona.

To my beloved mother, Ibbie Sutton and grandmother, Laura Bell Frazier, I dedicat this article. This is to be placed in the Pottawatomie County Historical Building in Shawnee, Oklahoma, for the information of future generations. Ibbie is a member of the Pottawatomie County Historical Society.

The Santa Fe depot in Shawnee stands as a reminder of an era gone by. Built in 1902, the depot is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Citizens of the community are restoring the depot so future generations can have a glimpse of what at one time was the bustling business of railway travel. When the depot is restored and renovation is complete it will hold historical documentaries such as this.

The Frazier family resided over two miles from Antioch, the nearest school. The children, of course walked back and forth each day to school. One of the school teachers at Antioch in those days was Oscar O. Fox of Powell and one of his students was Laura Jane Frazier.

In the meantime Oscar O. Fox's brother, William, had met and married Susan Frazier, sister of Laura Jane. They were making their home on Sugar Creek, about a mile above Powell, when Oscar O. and Laura Jane were married in their home by Brother William Rogers on March 7, 1896.

The newlyweds resided for a time with Mr. and Mrs. William Fox before moving into the old Fox residence, located about two and one-half miles above Powell on Mikes Creek. Here they resided and reared a family of seven children, all living except a son, Glen, who died when he was four years old.

The six children living in the order of their ages, are: Mrs. Ora Collings, Denver, Colo.; Mrs. Verna Hinton, Stella, Mo.; J. W. and H. H. Fox, Wheaton, Mo.; Carl of Springfield, Ill., and H. G. Fox of Tyler, Texas.

Mrs. Fox's grandfather, James Frazier, and grandmother, Isabell, resided at Mountain when the war broke out between the States called Civil War by most northern people). Arkansas seceded from the North and as Mountain is not far from the Missouri-Arkansas line, many of the residents of this area were in sympathy with the South.

Thus it was with James Frazier and he enlisted in the Confederate Army. It is not quite clear but it is thought he took part in the battle near Pea Ridge, and after the battle came home to visit his family and friends.

He and three or four of his friends were walking along a road when they saw what appeared to be some soldiers approaching. All the men ran into the woods but Frazier and a man thought to have been Fount Foster.

The supposedly soldiers turned out to be Bushwhackers wearing dead soldier's uniforms. They immediately shot and killed unarmed Frazier and Foster and then fled.

The two men were lying at the side of the road in a pool of blood. Mrs. Frazier came and got her husband and buried him. Today no living person knows where this grave is located.

During this period of time Bushwhacker gangs (really outlaws) roamed both Missouri and Arkansas, but principally on the Missouri side. They pilfered and murdered people who were not on "their side."

The gang who murdered Frazier and Foster was thought to have gotten the uniforms from the dead Confederate soldiers at the Pea Ridge battle. Frazier, it is thought, seeing the Confederate uniforms was not afraid of the men as he was a Confederate soldier.

Mrs. Fox's father, Jimmie, son of the murdered grandfather James, was almost old enough to enter the service and was thinking of joining the Confederate Army when the South surrendered and the most shameful war in the history of the United States ended.

Jimmy Frazier and three sons Robert, and the two infants, Virgil and Johnny, also two sons of Robert, are buried in a small cemetery at Mountain. Due to the cemetery not being kept up Mrs. Rebecca Frazier-Forgey requested that she be buried wherever she died. She died in Kansas City at the home of her daughter, Susan Fox, and as Mrs. Fox did not know of this request, she brought the body back for burial at Mountain. Instead of being buried at Mountain she was laid to rest in the Fox cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Fox had resided on the same farm on Mikes Creek where they started housekeeping in 1896. On the morning of June 30, 1943 Mrs. Fox washed the dishes and when her husband did not come to dry them she went to the front porch where she found him sitting in a porch swing, but dead from an apparent heart attack. Four days later, Sunday, July 4, 1943 Oscar Oren Fox was buried in the Fox cemetery where his son, Glen, was buried. Also his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hugh Fox, parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fox and other relatives were buried in the Fox family cemetery. The cemetery is now open to the public and was enlarged by O. O. Fox donating more land to the family plot.

Mrs. Fox remained living on the farm for almost 20 years with high school girls staying with her. Finally her health failed her and after receiving a broken hip in 1964, she has resided with her daughter, Verna, in Stella. She is unable to walk without the aid of a walker and her health is good considering her 93 years of age except her hearing is bad and recently she has been unable to read due to failing eyesight.

She has 13 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren, none of whom live in this area.

Mrs. Fox obeyed the Gospel early in life and has remained faithful to her Savior through the years. However, due to her health, she has not attended services the past few years as regularly as she would have liked. She was reared a Democrat, but changed her politics after her marriage and since then has been a staunch Republican.

Mrs. Fox received a large number of cards from her relatives and friends and she wishes to express her sincere thanks to all who remembered her on her birth day.

Incidentally, when asked what she attributed her long life to, she replied, "principally to hard work, both inside and outside the

Mrs. Laura Fox of Stella Celebrates Her 93rd Birthday Anniversary

Mrs. Laura Fox, who is making her home at present with a daughter, Mrs. Verna Hinton in Stella, celebrated her 93rd birthday anniversary Monday, Jan. 16.

A dinner honoring her was held in the Hinton home Sunday. Only close relatives residing in this area were present. In addition to the honoree, the others present were the daughter, Mrs. Hinton, another daughter, Mrs. Ora Collings of Denver, and two sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Fox and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fox of Wheaton.

Her visitors Monday were V. Y. Christian of Neosho, Mrs. J. E. Clanton and Mrs. Albert Brumley of Powell and Mrs. Argyl Kistler of Stella, who brought her a birth day cake which she had baked.

Mrs. Fox was born Jan. 16, 1874 near Mountain in the south east part of McDonald County, Mo. Her parents were Jimmie Frazier and the former Rebecca Briscoe. Her father died at the age of 58, but her mother lived into her late 80's.

Her mother was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Briscoe, also natives of Missouri, but not of the Mountain area. Rebecca was born July 10, 1850. Her mother died when she was small. Her father re-married and did not take his children into his home with him. Rebecca was kicked from "pillar to post," as the old saying goes, until she met and married Jimmie Frazier.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Frazier established a home in the hill country, west of Mountain. They were the parents of 11 children, two sons, Virgil and Johnny, dying in infancy. The other nine grew to manhood and womanhood, married and reared families.

The nine children, in the order of their births are: William Layfette, deceased; Frances Lavada (Jones), deceased; Susan (Fox), deceased; Laura Jane (Fox) of Stella; Robert, deceased; Mary (Woodard), deceased; Willis, of Drumright, Okla.; Ellis, deceased, and Ethel (Webb), of Pea Ridge, Ark.
